7 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
8 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

9 AMAZON.COM, INC., a Delaware corporation;

10 Plaintiff,

NO. 2:19-cv-00523-RSM

11 v.

12 ROY ORON, an individual; JEFFREY GILES,
13 an individual; DALE BROWN, an individual;
14 FIRST IMPRESSION INTERACTIVE, INC., an
Illinois corporation; and JOHN DOES 1-10;

15 Defendants.

JOINT STIPULATED MOTION AND ORDER CONTINUING TIME TO RESPOND TO COMPLAINT AND
AMENDING INITIAL CASE
DEADLINES

16 I. STIPULATION

17 Plaintiff Amazon.com, Inc., and defendants First Impression Interactive, Inc., Jeffrey
18 Giles, and Dale Brown jointly stipulate to, and request that the Court enter, the sub-joined order
19 (a) continuing defendants' time to answer the complaint and (b) amending the Initial Case
20 Deadlines.

21 First Impression, Mr. Giles, and Mr. Brown have only recently been served and retained
22 counsel. The parties have conferred and plaintiff has agreed to provide defendants with 23 additional time to get up to speed and to prepare a response to the Complaint. The parties
24 believe that this will facilitate a better informed and more productive Rule 26(f) conference. The 25 parties also anticipate engaging in broader, informal discussions regarding the basis of the 26 claims, which may impact the scope of the litigation and/or of discovery.

1 In addition, defendant Roy Oron is a foreign defendant and has not yet been served.
2 Extending the current deadlines will also facilitate efforts to serve Mr. Oron and potentially
3 allow counsel for Mr. Oron to participate in the Rule 26(f) conference.
4

5 Accordingly, the parties believe that continuing the time to respond to the Complaint and
6 amending the Initial Case Deadlines is in the interests of justice and may conserve judicial
7 resources. The parties therefore jointly stipulate to and request entry of the subjoined order.

8 DATED this 10th day of May, 2019.
